

MARILYN KING

STORY: Marilyn King (1926 - 1992) moved to the Yukon in 1956 with her husband Ernie. She was a respected city councilor who served for eight years. Fair, gracious, reliable, warm, trustworthy - words used to describe her by those who knew her.

Marilyn served with the American Red Cross during WWII and then with the U.S. Army Signals Corps and Royal Canadian Corps of Signals.

Marilyn held many jobs in Whitehorse, retiring in 1983 to give full-time attention to city council.
