

IRA "SLIM" FOSTER

STORY: Ira "Slim" Lew Foster established a fund for the care of abused children in the care by the Yukon Women's Transition Home Society which operates Kaushee's Place.

Ira worked in the Whitehorse and Mayo areas in mining and construction. He was not known to have any family. It was for persons such as Ira that the Yukon Foundation was first established.