

DAWSON DISTRICT RENEWABLE RESOURCES COUNCIL

STORY: The Dawson District Renewable Resources Council (DDRRC) was struck in 1999 as an essential part of the Implementation of the Tr'ondek Hwech'in Final Agreement to serve as a primary instrument for local renewable resources management.

DDRRC is composed of eight appointed community members and is dedicated to community-based management of Tr'ondek Hwech'in Traditional Territory Renewable Resources.