

TAMARA GUTTMAN

STORY: Tamara Guttman (1990 - 2005) was born and raised in Whitehorse. Her parents taught her to love and respect nature and learn the skills to survive and thrive in the outdoors. Tamara loved camping, building forts, and creating her famous bone museum of all kinds of critters in the backyard.

By the time Tamara was in grade 6, her other passion of life was dance. Tamara grew into a beautiful, confident young woman full of potential. She died suddenly on December 21, 2005 as a result of an undiagnosed condition.
