

HOUGEN FAMILY

STORY: Rolf Hougen's father came to the Yukon in 1906 and then went to BC in 1914. Rolf worked in the family business and moved to the Yukon with his parents in 1944. Rolf worked in the family business. He married Margaret in 1955.

Rolf managed not only to develop an enduring commercial legacy, but to touch many aspects of daily life in the Yukon. Rolf was inducted as an Officer of Order of Canada. He is an iconic community member and a pioneer for the business community.

Rolf was a founding member of the Yukon Foundation.