

NORTHERN WRITERS CIRCLE

STORY: In 1992 several Yukoners formed the Northern Writers Circle. For the next few years, the Club was very active with as many as 50 members at one point.

This fund was established from the monies remaining in the account when the club was wrapped up. It is to support Yukoner writers with their craft, with priority given to publishing costs.