

JAMES McLACHLAN

STORY: James McLachlan first came to the Yukon in 1963 to work in underground mining. He started with United Keno Hill Mines in Calumet, Yukon. Later he worked for Anvil Mining Corp. in Faro.

In 1974 he left mining to run private businesses in Faro. He was a MLA from 1985 to 1989 and then 2000 to 2002 and was mayor of Faro from 1994 to 2000.

James established this fund to promote interest in the mining industry.
