

BUD McKAY

STORY: Bud McKay (1931 - 2014) moved with his family to the new mining town of Faro, Yukon in 1973. He worked his way up to Town Foreman and Superintendent of Public Works. He served as the Bylaw Enforcement Officer, Volunteer firefighter and Auxiliary Conservation Officer. He later was employed by YTG doing Building Maintenance in Faro, Ross River and North Canol.

A true Faroite, he was always the first to lend a hand whenever someone was in need. Bud was honored and received many accolades throughout his working years. Bud was officially recognized for his community service on his 75th birthday as the recipient of the Yukon Commissioner's Award for Public Service.

At every opportunity Bud headed out into the Yukon wilderness hunting or fishing especially at his favorite fishing hole, Dragon Lake on the North Canol.
