

GORDON NEWMAN

STORY: Gordon Newman (1909 - 1989) moved to Whitehorse in 1961 with his wife and two sons. He worked in the Federal Government Stores until his retirement in 1977.

Gordon's interest and hobbies included doodle art and all kinds of sports. He was a very good commercial artist.

Gordon became a member of the Grey Mountain Lions Club in 1984. He organized and ran many sport raffles on behalf of the Club. These raffles benefited many charitable organizations in the Whitehorse area.
