

MAUREEN & GIL FONTAINE

STORY: Gil Fontaine joined the RCAF in 1960 when he was twenty. He was transferred to Whitehorse in 1963 and released from service in 1966.

Gil worked at New Imperial Mines as a shovel operator, then for the City of Whitehorse where he was employed as an equipment operator and driver for 28 years.

Maureen Fontaine (nee Bennett) (1943 - 2004), married Gil in Whitehorse in 1969. She worked most of her career as a secretary for the Yukon and federal governments.
