

MARVIN CRAWFORD

STORY: Marvin Crawford served in the RCAF 1940-1945 and then trained to be a master electrician. Marvin came to the Yukon in 1955 and worked until his retirement from active work in 1987 in refrigeration and oil heating.

Martin established this fund in 1989 when he left the Yukon to move to his family to Quebec, where he grew up.